DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office action is in response to an amendment filed on August 27, 2002.
2. Claims 1-14 and 16-54 are pending in the application. Claims 1-28 were previously examined, and claims 29-54 were withdrawn from consideration. Claims 1 and 18 were amended, and claim 15 was cancelled.

Election/Restrictions

3. Applicants argue that previously elected claims, i.e. product claims 29-44 and method claims 18-28 should have been examined together, and since they were separated, Applicants would like to have all of the methods, including method claims 45-54, examined together. However, in the currently pending application 09/876,374, Applicants elected the product claims, 29-44, therefore they will be examined. Method claims 45-54 are drawn to methods different from the ones examined in the previous Office action, and will not be rejoined with claims 1-14 and 16-28.
4. This application contains claims 29-54 drawn to an invention nonelected with traverse in Paper No. 10. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancelation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

Drawings

5. The corrected or substitute drawings were received on August 27, 2002. Drawing corrections for Figures 4, 6E, 7 and 10 are accepted. No drawing correction was submitted for Figure 9.

Double Patenting

6. Applicants indicated that they will take the necessary steps to obviate the rejection provisional double-patenting rejection of claims 1-28 when the application will become allowable. Therefore, the double patenting rejection is maintained.

Art Unit: 1637

7. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

8. Claims 1-14 and 16-28 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 22-36 of U.S. Patent No. 09/876,374. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both sets of claims are drawn to methods for separating labeled nucleotide phosphate from its detectable moiety, by subjecting the labeled nucleotide phosphate to enzymatic cleavage and separating the cleaved, now charged detectable moiety in an energy field.

9. No references were found teaching or suggesting claims 1-14 and 16-28, but they are rejected for other reasons.

Conclusion

10. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
